Dan

There are some false assertions here. In the afternoon, I made a routine phone call for detailed information for Chairman Lee's schedule. She said she had already sent it. Anything beyond this is simply not true.

Then, early in the evening, I received a phone call from Chairman Lee that he thought he had a stomach bug. He asked me to clear his calendar. I called Ms. Fisher to make her aware.

It sure looks like someone is playing politics here.

I wanted to reach out to you because I am writing a story about your calls Debbie Fischer earlier this week. Lee says you only called to confirm the event was happening; Fischer says you never asked that question and that your inquiry was for the questions that were to be asked that night. She says you wanted "staff" to look over the questions.

Fischer says you then called back a couple of hours later to inform them that Lee was ill and would not attend.

What was the purpose of your calls?
